REBEL ARCHIVES

Richmond Va. Aug. 16th 1863.

Hon. J. R. Johnston Secy of War
Sir,

I have the honor of asking of you the appointment of H. C. Ellis, of Middle Tennessee to the position Assistant Commissary of Subsistence, to be assigned to duty in my regiment (8th Tenn) of Cavalry, now in service in the department of South Western Virginia & East Tennessee. In the original temporary organization of the regiment on the 1st of September 1862 Mr Ellis was assigned to the duty & C. & sent an application, with the name of his intended office as his security, to your department, to be regularly appointed and commissioned as such. But owing to some fault not his own, he understood that they did not reach you. He afterwards made a second effort which met with the same fate. He continued, but however, in that capacity, receiving funds from the hands of those in the commissary department who were acting for the brigade to which my regiment belonged, and paying them out for supplies for the regiment, and to faithfully discharge all the duties connected with the office until he was captured by the enemy in June 1863. He was held as a prisoner of war until the 3rd of December 1863, at which time he was exchanged. He has since reported to the brigade and division commissary and in every way faithfully and satisfactorily performed his duty in the position mentioned. I can recommend him as a man of fine business qualifications and habits, sober, energetic and honest. His health is such as to prevent him from discharging the duties of a soldier in the line, while he can make a most useful use of the position assigned for him. He is a citizen of the same state and section of the state in which my regiment was raised. I have no assistant commissary of Subsistence assigned to my regiment, he having acted for me at the Atlanta & Sharpsburg. I therefore most respectfully ask that he be appointed, commissioned & commissioned as such and assigned to duty in my regiment & your office application may be favorably considered by you.

I am, Sir, your most obedient and respectfully

H. W. Ward, Lieut.
7th Regt. Tenn. Cavalry.

Sir.

I beg to advise the appreciation of Lieut. Ellis for a position as Trial Master or Forest Marshall at Monroe La. He comes to me highly recommended by Dr. Young of Monroe and Judge Richardson the presiding Judge for that portion of La.

His manners and appearance are decidedly in his favor and as he entered early into the war and fought until he was disabled in the battle before Richmond. I must respectfully ask attention to his request.

Lieut. Ellis disability by reason of wounds unfit him for active field service but ^{not} for either of the positions he asks.

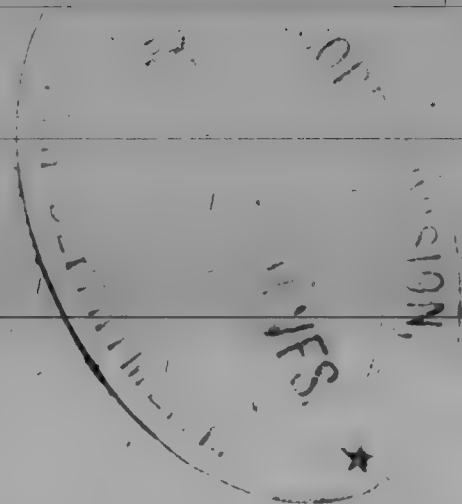

Yours Respectfully

J. M. Smith

If he cannot otherwise be provided for I would suggest a detail of him for duty under the Conscription Bureau.

I have already recommended Capt. P. Ellis for promotion.
Since the death of Gen. Tilghman, he has acted on my staff as an A. & T. Gen. & I have never known an officer of any grade, more devoted to the service. - Competent educated, industrious and courteous, he has made himself thoroughly qualified Having served with several able and accomplished Generals, he always com-

Engaged in constant and arduous service, he

Permit me, as an Officer of the old Army, one who has had the honour as well as the pleasure of your acquaintance, to ask your attention to the claims of my friend Capt P Ellis Jr Adj Genl Army I do this General, the more readily, because I am confident, the recital of the duty performed by Capt Ellis will at once claim your attention.

First July 1861 Ellis volunteered in 3rd Regt Vol. Inf Kentucky within a few days was elected 1st Lieut. by his military bearing and conduct he attracted the attention of the then Comdr Officer Col Lynd Tilghman who upon the organization appointed Lt Ellis Adjutant Upon Tilghman's promotion Sept 19/86 Ellis was appointed Adj Genl.

Capt Ellis had the good fortune to meet the fight was over. Reported for duty at Ashville Tenn Arkansas with whom he served until the over

The release of Genl. Tilghman, who in the reorganization of the line or twelve thousand men captured at Ft. Henry & Belmont had for his Chief of Staff and Chief Officer Capt P. Ellis Jr. in that later I became acquainted with Capt Ellis' proficiency as an officer. His labors were incessant, and even more than that of the Chief of a Division. Commu-
-der, subsequent to this reorganization Genl. Tilghman com-manded a Division with Ellis as Chief of Staff and up to the battle of Milledge Creek near Vicksburg where Genl.
Tilghman was killed, Capt. E. was with that gallant officer. Subsequently it fell to my lot to command Tilghman's Brigade. So certain was I that Ellis had been promoted, I addressed him as Major. Genl.
Loring, supposing the same transferred him to his Staff as Chief. in which capacity he is still de facto acting.

It is hardly necessary for me to add anything with regard to Capt. Ellis' standing as an officer and a gentleman. A very short acquaintance, General, will enable you to discover in the Captain an elegant gentleman and a man, strictly and conscientiously devoted to his duty.

The correctness of different papers which have been forwarded from his office, will I am confident, satisfy you that the Captain is worthy of promotion.

Dear Sir:

My brother Captain Powhatan Ellis, Jr., has several times, in his letters to me, expressed a desire to be transferred from the army of Mississippi and East Louisiana to the army of Northern Virginia. We are as yet without detailed information in regard to the battles before Gettysburg; no list of casualties has been published; but it occurs to me as not improbable that among the heavy losses which it is admitted we have sustained, there may be some vacancy to which my brother might be appropriately assigned. The object of this letter Yours truly
Thos

There is to ask the favor of you in that case to aid me in carrying out his wishes.

I enclose a couple of letters which have been kindly furnished me for the purpose of being sent to you, one from Col. Gilmer, chief of the Engineer Bureau, the other from Mr. Beverley Tucker, my brother-in-law.

If Major Charles Marshall of Gen. Lee's staff is near you, he can, and I doubt not will with pleasure, give you all proper information about my brother's character, qualification, habits, &c. On my part, I will only briefly observe, that, entering the service at the beginning of the war as a lieutenant, he was made adjutant of his regiment (the 2nd Kentucky) by Col. Lloyd Tilghman, at

at Camp Boone. On the promotion of Col. Tilghman he followed him as adjutant of the brigade, and was with him until the fall of Fort Henry; served in the battle of Fort Donelson as adjutant to Gen. Bushrod Johnson; in the battle of Shiloh as adjutant to Gen. Cleburne; rejoined Gen. Tilghman on his return from Fort Warren, and continued with him until he was killed in the battle of Baker's Creek. So far as I know and believe he has performed all his duties with scrupulous fidelity, and in a manner perfectly acceptable to his superior officers. I know that Gen.
Tilghman entertained for him warm personal friendship and esteem, and was accustomed to speak in high terms of the value and efficiency of his services as an assistant adjutant general.

My hope is that you may be able to recommend him to some Major General who is in want of an experienced adjutant, or may know of some Brigade adjutant who would be willing to exchange places with him, and thus secure at least his transfer, if not a promotion to which his friends think him fairly entitled.

Brig. Gen. John Adams has been assigned to the command of Genl. Tilghman's old brigade.

Extract of a letter from Captain Powhatan Ellis, Jr., Assistant Adjutant General, lately attached to Brig. Gen. Lloyd Tilghman's brigade, dated Newton, Mississippi, August 16, 1863, addressed to Thomas H. Ellis, of Richmond, Va.

My dear brother:

The day after I wrote [about a week ago.] I accepted the position of Chief of Staff upon Major General Loring's staff, and have been on duty with him ever since.
To-day I have learned that he was under the impression that my rank was that of Major, and that he had forwarded the names of different members of his staff for promotion, but omitted mine. Captain Robinson, his former Adjutant, he intends to assign to the duties of an Inspector, but thinking my rank was Major already, he nominated Robinson as Major in the A. A. General's Department. The difficulty thus created is this: He thinks two nominations for Majorities at the same time would not be made. I have therefore telegraphed you to-day to urge my promotion without reference to General Loring - upon the score of ^{my} being the oldest, A. A. G. in the West, and of actual services in the field. Should you secure it for me, Robinson will get his Majority and and neither will interfere with the other. I understood from your letters that the only difficulty about my promotion was finding a place to assign me to. I ask now to be promoted and ordered to report to General Johnston, when I will find a place for myself: in other words, General Loug having by his nomination secured Robinson the Majority and assigned him to Inspector's duties, will apply for me.

Affectionately your brother, (signed) Powhatan Ellis, Jr.

Note by Thomas H. Ellis:

Gen. Lloyd Tilghman was commissioned a Brigadier October 18, 1861, and immediately nominated my brother (who had been Adjutant of the 2d Kentucky regiment under him since the 19th July 1861) as Captain, to be assigned to him as Assistant Adjutant General; but, by some misapprehension or delay at the War Department, he was not commissioned until the 15th February 1862. The duties of the office, however, he performed, 1st under Gen. Tilghman, 2nd under Gen. Pickett Johnson, 3rd under Gen. Cleburne, and finally under Gen. Tilghman.

-man again, until the death of the late ^{named} at Baker's creek on the 16th May 1863.

I respectfully ask that my brother may be appointed a Major in the Adjutant and Inspector General's office to rank as such from the 16th May 1863.

Sir: On the 20th of April last, Lieut. Gen. Polk recommended Captain Powhatan Ellis, Jr., (then serving on his staff, in the place of Major Mason, transferred to the army of Gen. Johnston by the War Department,) for promotion in the Adjutant General's Department.

This communication I believe was referred by you to the Adjutant General for consideration and remarks as to the state of Gen'l. Polk's staff - whether the regulations allow the proposed promotions, and if so, as to the past services and merits of the officers recommended.

No report I think has been made upon this reference.

My dear Sir,

The President

Sir,

I have been favored with the receipt of the paper in file in the Adj. and Inspect. General's Office, in reference to the promotion of my personal & military friend, Capt. Probation Ellis Jr. U. S. A.

Among said papers I find the recommendations of Maj. Gen. Loring, Brigadier John Adams - Washington, Rufus, and Polk, and lastly, one from Lt. Gen. D. M. Smith when when Staff Capt. Ellis was then serving.

Upon this latter recommendation no final action appears to have been taken, which undoubtedly upon the other appears to indicate that the promotion could not take place in the absence of a vacancy.

I am not surprised, however, with the delay of the Dept. as know whether any such difficulty can exist, yet I take the liberty of writing. This letter, and to which I have not been permitted to deducture of the case of this young gentleman and former officer in the army, of high moral worth, education and accomplishments - as an adult son I am told he has not his superior in the army - The case is one every way worthy of your former deciit and promote Capt. E. to a Majority.

The Staff of Lieut. Gen^l. Richard Taylor, commanding the Dept. of Ala., Miss. & East Louisiana, consists at present of Lieut. Col. W. M. Levy, Capt. P. Ellis, Jr., " " E. Sargent, " " W. Hough.

By general order No. 44 a Lieut. Gen^l. is allowed a senior Asst. Adjt. & Insp. Gen^l, and an Asst. & Insp's Gen^l, not to exceed the grade of Lieutenant-Colonel, each of whom may have one Assistant Adjutant and Inspector General, not to exceed the grade of Major.

Captain Powhatan Ellis, Jr., has been heretofore recommended for promotion, successively, by Major Gen^l. Loring, Lieut. Gen^l. Polk, Lieut. Gen^l. S. D. Lee, and Major Gen^l. Frank Gardner, with each of whom he was serving at the time of being recommended, as an Assistant Adjutant General. He has been serving as such, with the rank of Captain, since the 19th September 1861.

There is no objection to him on the score of merit - inasmuch as it is understood that he stands ~~among~~ among those classed as "A, No. 1" on the Register lately prepared at the Department; while he is probably the oldest assistant adjutant general in the Western army.

ELLIS, POWHATAN, Jr., Capt. & A.A.G.

Gen. Tilghman's Command.

Sept. 17, 1861. Lieut. & Actg. A.A.G., staff of Gen. Tilghman from this date. He had been Actg. Adjt. of 3d Ky. Inf. since July 5, 1861. (Report from Rolls, 3d Ky.)

Gen. B.R. Johnson's Command.

Feb. 7, 1862. Lieut. Ellis served on staff of Gen. Tilghman, comdg. Forts. Henry & Donelson, until Feb. 6, when Tilghman surrendered. Lieut. Ellis remained at Fort Donelson, serving on staff of Gen. B.R. Johnson, who assumed command Feb. 7, 1862. (Vol. 7, pp. 135, 358, 363.) Feb. 15, 1862. Appointed Capt., A.G. Dept.; to rank Feb. 12, 1862; to report to Gen. Tilghman. (Report, A.G.) Lieut. Gen. Tilghman was a prisoner of war at this time, and not exchanged until the following August.

Gen. Floyd's Command. (?)

Feb. 17-20, 1862. Gen. Floyd reports evacuation of Nashville, and mentions "Capt. Ellis, of my staff". (Vol. 7, p. 428.)

Gen. Floyd had assumed comd. at Ft. Donelson Feb. 13, 1862. (Vol. 7, p. 2.)

Lieut. Ellis, A.A.G., said (Feb. 7, 1862.) "I remain here [at Ft. Donelson] by order of Gen. Tilghman, and shall still do so, offering my services as Vol. Aide to whoever is in command". (Vol. 7, p. 135.)

But personal papers & A.G.O. letters make no reference to service with Gen. Floyd, although the statement is repeatedly made that he [Ellis] escaped from Donelson to Nashville.

Gen. Cleburne's Command.

Feb. Aug., 1862. After the fall of Ft. Donelson Capt. Ellis reported for duty at Nashville, and was assigned to duty on the staff of Gen. Cleburne, with whom he served until the release of Gen. Tilghman. (Pers. Papers, Adams to Cooper, Dec. 9, 1863.)

May 16, 1862. Battle of Baker's Creek, Miss. Gen. Tilghman, comdg. Brig., was killed. Capt. Ellis, his A.A.G., then reported to Col. A.W. Reynolds, who assumed command of the Brigade. (Vol. 24-2, pp. 81, 82.)

General -

Permit to call your attention to the enclosed paper the original of which is on file in your office. May I also earnestly recommend the promotion of Capt Ellis to the rank of Major. He is now assigned to duty with this Division as inspector. Of long & faithful service in the field with a shot through the shoulder Command to favorable notice he is well commended - I speak of what I know.

Capt Ellis was appointed Captain & A. A. G. on the 17th of Nov. 1864 & confirmed by the Senate on the 28th Decr 1864. By accident or inadvertence as I hear his name failed to reach the Senate at the previous session. although placed among the nominations by the President.

This no doubt is the only reason why why his appointment does not date at that session.

I am General very respectfully yours received on the 18th Inst. which was sent to the same date to have been reported is described by Capt Ellis as a Memorandum prepared by Genl Bragg, & addressed to the cannot be found in this Office, nor does there appear to be any record of its forwarding elsewhere. The paper has been mentioned

ELLIS, ROSWELL,
Capt. 2d Ga. Inf.
Capt. & A. A. G.

- ✓ April 16, 1861. Roswell Ellis entered Conf. service as Capt. Co. C, 2d Ga. Inf. (Seimes) ✓ Served in this capacity for one year,--until reorg. of 12-months troops under the ✓ Conscription Act. (Personal papers, Bryan to Cooper, Aug. 2, 1864.) ✓ Jan. 3, 1863. Appointed, from Ga., Capt. & A. A. G.; to take rank Dec. 24, 1862; to report to Gen. P. J. Seimes; remark, "Vacated by virtue of non-confirmation." (1-86-144; Report A. O., Personal Papers, Aug. 2, 1864.) ✓ July, 1864. To this date all records show him as Capt. & A. A. G. with Seimes' Brig. later commanded by Gen. Bryan. Pers. papers distinctly so state, and that he was in all the battles of the Brig. until severely wounded at Knoxville in Nov., 1863.
(Vols. 25-1, 1-536; 31-1, 1-495; A. & I. C. O. 278-7; S. O. 108 (22) A. & I. C. O.
Insp. Report A 2, April 1864.) ✓ July 1864. Capt. Ellis is notified that, the Senate having failed to confirm his nomination, he ceases to be an officer of C. S. A. (Personal Papers, Aug. 2, 1864.) ✓ Aug. 2, 1864. Gen. Bryan, comdg. Brig., states facts concerning Capt. Ellis & his service. It is proven that through error the name of Capt. Ellis was not presented to Senate. Gen. Bryan asks that he be reinstated and assigned to duty with his Brig., with rank of Major. Much correspondence regarding the matter, but apparently Ellis was not restored to Bryan's Brigade. (Personal Papers.) ✓ Dec. 28, 1864. Appointed, from Ga., Capt. & A. A. G.; to take rank Nov. 17, 1864; to report to Maj.-Gen. Field; remark: "Retired March 25, 1865." (1-94-156; Report A. O.
Bel. Bank Book A. G. Dept.) ✓ Feb. 23, 1865. From Hdqrs. Field's Div., Gen. Berning comdg., asks promotion to Maj. for Capt. R. Ellis, A. A. G. But is it not evident that he reported for duty with the Division. (Personal Papers.) ✓ March 25, 1865. Retired. (9-99-236; Report A. O.) Capt. & A. A. G., Inv. Corps, ordered to report to Maj.-Gen. Cobb, comdg. Ga. Reserves. (S. O. 70 (14) & 73 (26)

Mr. Durand.

In the second section of the act creating the office of General-in-Chief, my personal staff is designated out of service, Col. Cole, my Secretary of War, is already reappointed in the General's Dept. May I ask your early action in behalf of the other? The same action I suppose as was taken with General Lee's aid can be extended in my case, and in that event, I shall not decline the appointment of any other aids de camp.

My present aids de camp in the order of rank are

1. Major Towson Ellig. La.
2. Major Francis S. Parker, S. C.
3. Major Robert Strange, N. C.
4. Major James E. Fitch, Va.

Lieut Col Luke Ludman, R. A. S. is the only officer of that dept. on duty with me.

Yours, Most Respectfully,

Wm. A. Rugg.

Col. 1st Lt. Genl. he assigned to that Comd. unit

2 Majors

He has already the Colonel & Lt Colonel & the mission therefore narrowed down down to the two Majors. He has found himself in camp with rank of Major previous to the passage of a late law which elevated him to the rank of Major.
These Majors, had the following relatives rank

1 Major J. E. Elber (a 1st regular service)

2 Major F. S. Parker. I.C.

3 Major Robt. Strange. I.C.

4 Major W. E. Culbertson. I.C.

Genl. Morgan suggests, that as Major Elber is a 1st in the regular service, he might be app't Major.
Col. to come & serve with volunteer troops, under Act May 21/61, & that he can assign him to that duty, (Major, Parker & Strange to be app't with that rank as 1st Lt. Genl. & Major Culbertson retained

Dear Mr. C. Sedden

My dear Sir

I would most respectfully ask that I be granted a furlough of thirty (30) days for the following reasons I was captured the 10th of last November and have been a prisoner in the hands of the enemy until last evening when I was returned at this place. Not having received a furlough in some time I would beg your most favorable consideration of this application

Take that Chas. St. Elms, who has been in his employ since May 1863, be appointed ensure the continuance of The above is a most unusual case this service to my knowledge of being Port Commissioner at Charlotte. Mr. Elms has served in the employment of Major S. since May 1863.

This was since that time he refused to accept comparing offers from outside Parties. ~~Mr. Elms~~ has been influenced wholly & entirely by a desire to give the Government the benefit of his services; at the time he declined the employment of Major S. he was not can not have Mr Elms appointed would prefer please try to have some com-

I should have a Post Commissioner for some reason. I would prefer a bonded agent if for reasons assigned I would prefer Mr useful and that nothing alone prevents me

Sir

I have the honor hereby to call your attention to my application of 10th August 1863 - for an appointment as a Captain in the Engineers - at that time I was on parole - having been captured with my Regiment at Vicksburg - from that parole I have been monthly (27th June 1864) been released, and I am anxious to go into service with the Engineer Corps, or Engineer Troops. I have been Adjutant of my Regiment 29th La. Infantry (Thomas) since its organization, and I cheerfully refer to the endorsements of Col. (now Brig. Genl.) Thomas Brig. Genl. Sharp, and also Genl. W. C. Smith, as to my military character, and the professional recommendations are file in your Bureau

I belong now to the Trans Miss. Department, am under orders from Genl. E. H. Smith (see copy enclosed) which duty I expect to have completed in the course of a few weeks. I am well acquainted with Western Louisiana, and as I understand a Regiment of Engineer Troops is being got up for the Trans Miss. Dept. I should like to get an appointment with it - I am the ranking Subaltern officer in my Regiment - nearly every officer of which has been promoted except myself, none who were promoted when I was appointed Adjutant, are now Captains. I therefore respectfully ask the consideration of the Department.

I have the honor to be, Sir, Very Respectfully,

Sir,

I take pleasure in giving the following testimonial of the merit and ability of Lieut George C. Elms

I have known him for the last Ten Years and always found him prompt and efficient in all the duties of an Engineer. In the Years 1854 & 1855 he had Charge of a Division of the Mississippi Central Rail Road of 45 Miles in its Location and Construction

In 1859 I took Charge of a topographical Survey of the Exchange District of this State and I chose Mr Elms as my Asst. and he served in this capacity for more than a year to the utmost satisfaction of myself and the Board of Commissioners.

I know no man of his age that more fully understands the whole Mechanics of his profession than Lt Elms and as a result he has most courteous and honorable and is therefore cheerfully recommended to all friends and all who may meet a friend or Engineer

I forwarded on the 31st ult. an application for transfer from "Field Service" to Post or Depot Duty based upon Certificate of Army Medical Examining Board, and asked to be assigned to duty in the Trans. Miss. Dist. I have served since the commencement of the war in the field, as a line officer and quartermaster and my constitution has become so impaired that my services and the service of my country would be my retirement from field service.
I volunteered in the service at the beginning of our troubles, and wish still to serve to the best of my ability, and believe I can do so more effectively in the hospital than in the line of war and I earnestly request that When I received your letter I was glad to hear of your success in Congress. I have been greatly interested in the Army since the war and the Rebel Army. I have been very much interested in the war and the Rebel Army. I have been very much interested in the war and the Rebel Army.

Genl. Reynolds has proved himself worthy of the esteem and confidence of Atlanta. His Brigade is devotedly attached to him, and under his leadership have won additional laurels during the arduous campaigns of the Summer and Fall. I am sure the deep interest you took in him has proven well and will continue to prove a great service to our Cause.

Chap. 5, Book 12.

Genl. Grant has the esteem and confidence of the Army and will strike the blow - a proper opportunity presented. The Campaigns since the fall of Atlanta have been severe but most nobly borne up. Soldiers met every privation and hardship and held the Tennessee River and Spotsylvania.

My dear Sir,

By the enclosed letter of the 1st inst. I have the pleasure to inform you that the appointment of Mr. A. Simm (Episcopal Minister) as Chaplain of the General Hospital at Brandon. This venerable and reverent gentleman has had charge of the Hospital for several years, and is well known to the public as well as to the staff of the Hospital. He is a regular chaplain of the staff, and his services have been much appreciated by the staff and the public. His services have been much appreciated by the staff and the public.

different, and if it can be shown, we will give it your special attention, viz: the appointment of the Rev. L.
Allen to the office, (the care of the Manhattan Hospital.) If your judgment does not differ from mine, I should like for you to interest yourself in his behalf. He has had the spiritual charge of the Hospital for several months, and he assures me that the office is one of a regular chaplain, and one which does not require poor & inferior. He has been in charge of it for several years, and in addition to his other ecclesiastical duties, & he now asks through me, that he may receive the regular appointment of the Chaplain. I am now the survey could be acceptable to him, as this time he is free, and is not engaged in his duties, by personal work, and I am not afford to give his services a good deal any. He has preached a lot in matrons on the Sabbath, and has been called upon to administer baptism repeatedly before the last closing of his office. Now I think it would be proper and considerate to have a regular Chaplain, & that more respect should be paid to the interment of soldiers than is usually paid. Other Hospitals have Chaplains & I do not see why this should not have one also. There are between three & 400 soldiers usually here, and it is now a permanent institution, and deserves all the respect paid to any institution. No other is the only, I think, as it is the Hospital regularly and from the continuing & substantial work and it deserves the position of a general ment. As one of your constituents

Mauden Mar: 28 7863

Hon E. Mendenhall

My dear Sir

Your letter of - date has been rec'd also the letter from - Talley of the 6th March, ~~saying~~ that if Mauden were a military Post Mr Edwell might be appointed, Chaplain etc.

Now we submit whether this is not a military Post. Mr Parker is Surgeon of the Post - and as such arrests convicts and deserters, gives transportation tickets, and acts in all respects as Surgeon of this as a military Post. If it be not reported as such the fault is with the military officers, who have failed to make due returns. Mr Parker signs himself Surgeon of the Post and Captain and Quarters master. True we have no regular force in the town with arms in their hands - but it is a military Post for all that, & he has military duties to perform.
The Hospital increases in size & every night between last 70 sick soldiers came here - there are 3 physicians, in daily attendance, & a chaplain is needed to administer spiritual comfort to the sick. Mr & Mrs Edwell has been discharging the duties of Chaplain ever since the organization of the Hospital and his wife has been almost the only lady who has constantly devoted herself; sain or shine, to the wants of the afflicted. She has been truly an angel of mercy to our soldiers, who will come here with joy in their haggard eyes when she appears.

I now call your attention to this matter again, as a matter of duty, patriotism, and Christian humanity. I have labored so ardently to secure the passage of the bill, and I am sure this will be done. I hope the justice of the cause may have its influence.
If you cannot pass the bill proposed by yourself - perhaps you can get the department to re-examine this and make a report, for it is in point of fact whether it is or is not. There you will be able to do so & have this made a special appointment to Rev. J. Edwell - whose services are great and constant in the capacity of Chaplain. Let him have the endorsement of the Govt: & be so in fact. My brother will endeavor to get you endorsed in this manner.
Mr & Mrs Edwell & his family are all expecting you the next few weeks.

Yours friend & Respt,

J. H. Hays

We are well and particularly acquainted with the facts and statements contained in the above and believe your action in favor of the bill of the Hon. J.
Edwell is an act of justice and duty.

Received
March 19/63
The March 14/63

Approved

By order of the Board of

17 March 1863

To His Excellency Jefferson Davis

President of the Confederate States

Dear Sir

The Rev. Frederic Elwell, in whose behalf the accompanying Recommendation is presented to you, is one of the most faithful and valued Presbyters of my Diocese. He has, as I know, been a daily visitant in the several houses, used as Hospitals in Brandon; and has in many instances been a cause of much comfort and spiritual benefit to the sick and dying. His services are very acceptable to the several Surgeons of the Hospital, as their accompanying signatures will testify. ~~But~~ Whilst to the afflicted inmates he has endeared himself by his many kind attentions. In this good work he is much encouraged and assisted by the labors of his excellent wife. As he resides on the spot, he can, and I am sure, he will, visit the sick daily, and even oftener, if necessary. Twice in the month, he officiates at Clinton, remaining, on each occasion, from two to three days. The Commission, therefore, if it pleases you to give him one, might extend to Clinton also, unless that place is already provided for.

In the Commission which you recently sent to Rev. Mr. Darnus through my hands, "Brandon" was named among several other places at which he was required to report himself. I feel certain however that Mr. Darnus would be perfectly willing to yield to Mr. Elwell any claim that his prior Commission may give him upon "Brandon". The Hospitals at "Newton" ~~and~~ "Meridian" and "Marion" will be as much, if not more than he can justly attend to.

With assurances of highest regard. I remain very truly Your friend and well-wisher

W. M. Green

When you forwarded to Col. J. B. Hinkley (Chattahoochee River) the amt of ordnance & equipments for Discharge (as was) as called for by his requisition, your assistant sent a box by mistake of "Heders" for "Heders". The error must have occurred through the marker of the boxes. At any rate such is the fact & the aforesaid "Heders" are here. Col. Hinkley will have them shipped to Columbus & turned over to Capt. DeLand A. G. M. and take his receipt for same and have a duplicate sent you appraising you of such deposit. You will please look over this Com. and trace therefrom our box of Havasack and make necessary explanatory notes.

doubtless, to divert you from Williamsburg

Head Quarters Richmond
Dec. 17 1862

Dear Sir

Genl. Elzey having been to me for duty is assigned to the command of the Richmond Artillery and of the of the command is in a North of James River.
Genl. Elzey and the works around them the line is a part of the Richmond line and will be under the command of Genl. Elzey. It is difficult to provide exact geographical boundaries between the commands of Genl. Elzey, Genl. Smith and Genl. Whiting, but even were that line definitely drawn they would necessarily be disrupted in command and in case of action occurring against the enemy depot must be that line would be set aside and the line made to beat the foe.
I desire to impress ^{upon} you the importance of cooperation and a thorough understanding of the operations of affairs in the respective Command. Information concerning the movements of the enemy should be promptly sent to the nearest Command, at the same time that it is communicated to this Office.

It is my desire that you should exercise with in your respective commands all the authority which the regulations, orders and orders confer upon geographical Military Commanders in case of presence of the enemy.
I shall endeavor to give to you all the assistance and support within my power and will be with you in person wherever practicable.

The duties of Brig. Genl. Windeling of a peculiar character, and more or less connected directly with the War Department, he will continue to make his reports to this Office, and to the Adjutant General, as Adjutant and Inspector General of the Army, as heretofore. But as regards the military operations proper and the disposal with that all will, when called upon, be in the direction of the signal office, perhaps

The undersigned officers of the Regiment Texas Infantry, under your command, respectfully take the liberty of recommending you Dr Geo. W. Embree for a temporary appointment as Assistant Surgeon of the Regiment. We feel confident that Dr.
Embree will give satisfaction in the position of Assistant Surgeon, and should such prove to be the case, we would also solicit a permanent appointment for him; understanding that the Regiment is entitled to two Assistant Surgeons, and that this appointment will not conflict with that offered to Dr. Lops.

He regards the temporary appointment of Dr Embree as peculiarly desirable at this time, in consequence of the absence of the Principal Surgeon, Dr Lyons, on his present tour of inspection.

General,

The Office of Asst. Commissary in my Regiment having been made vacant under the following circumstances I would respectfully recommend Sergeant John Ammerman of the Signal Corps U. S. A. for that position and request that he be appointed.

Captain S. A. H. Righton received that appointment on the 1st of August 1862. Failing to give the required bond he was not commissioned, but continued to act in that capacity until the 13th Oct. 1862 when he was stricken with Paralysis and shortly afterward conveyed to the residence of his wife near Denton N. C.. I have been informed that Captain Righton left his resignation in Richmond but it never has been forwarded to me and as he is now within the enemy's lines it is impossible to communicate with him.

I am

Respectfully

Received 10 Aug 1892

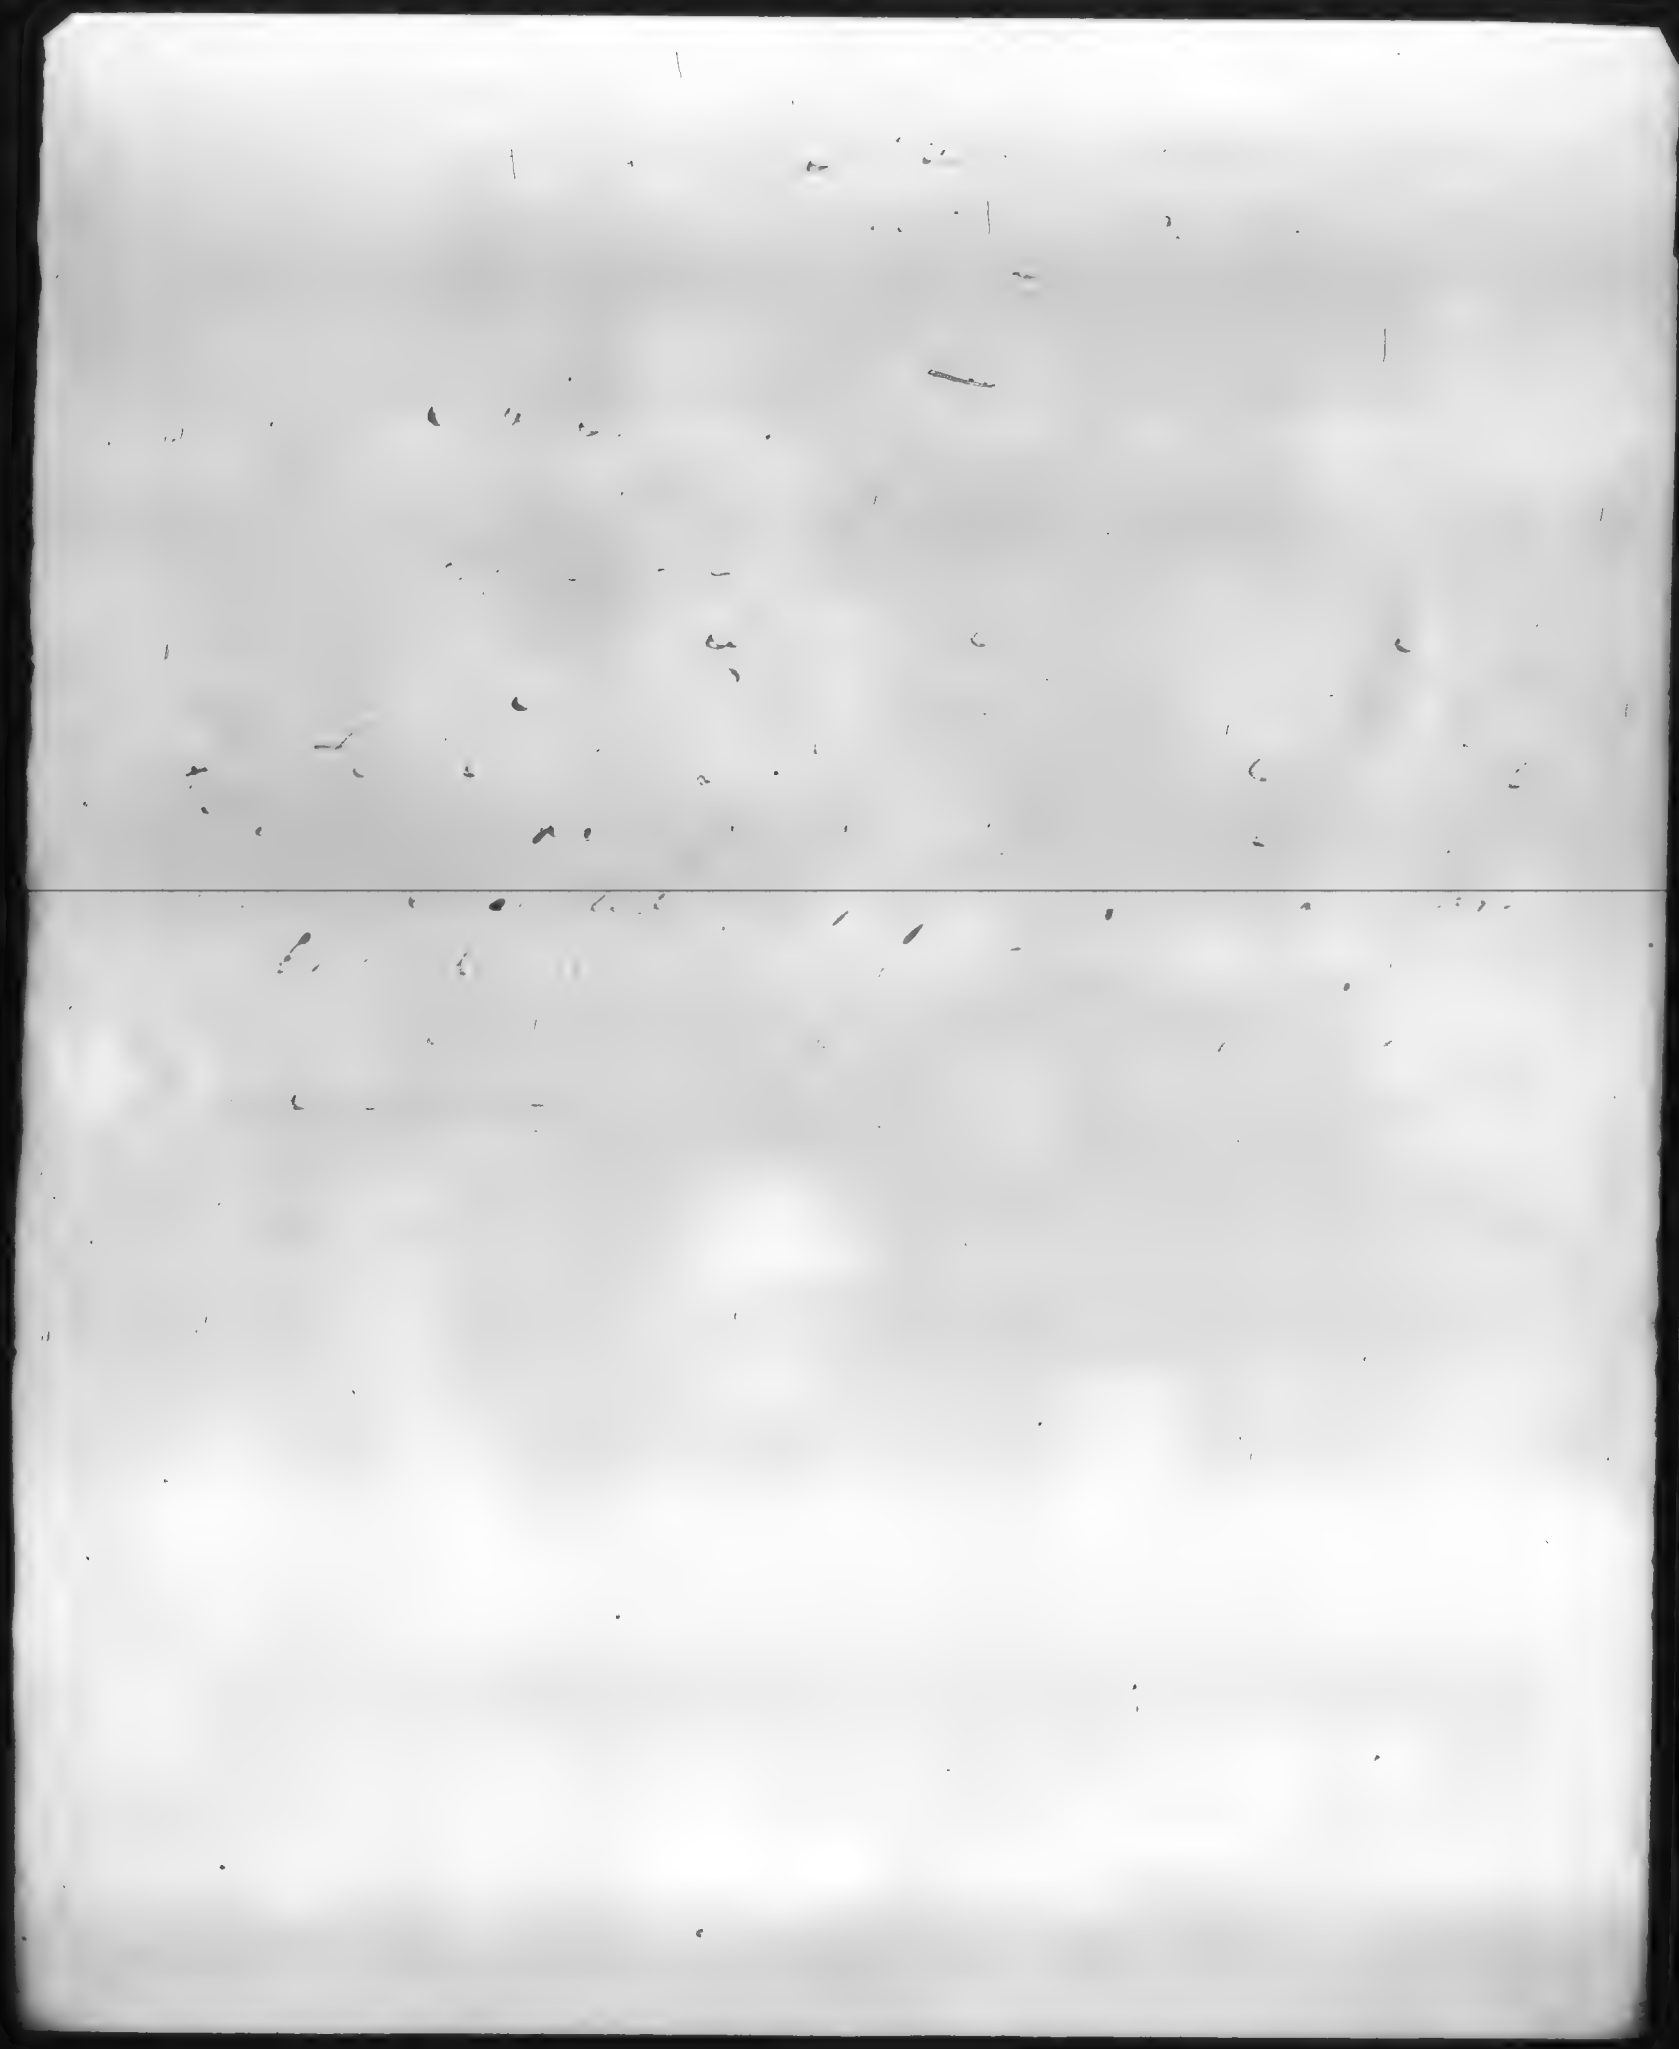

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, particularly towards the edges. There are faint, illegible markings near the top edge, which appear to be bleed-through from the text on the reverse side. The overall tone is a warm, off-white or light beige.

I take pleasure in writing with Major L Minor in the recommendation, that the appointment of Capt J C English be confirmed by the proper Department. He has been a long time on duty, and from no fault of his own his name does not appear properly on the rolls. He has the reputation of being one of the best Quarter Masters in the Department, and for a number of years a resident of the State of Country in which he is now stationed. His habits are, and favorably connected with the people in business would add much to the efficiency and success of the business operations of the Government in that Section.

I am with much respect

General

Capt J. C. Engleaving has been acting as Capt D. M. and reports himself under some time since. He supposes that the recommendation of Col. Hughes, appears as was the recommendation by Gen. Frank Gardner, then at Fort Anderson accompanied by his official bond, was equivalent to an appointment (a mistake which many have labored under).

He was ordered by Maj. A. L. Barber, Chf. of State to report to me and supposing that he was properly appointed I assigned him to duty at Hazelhurst. He had had not entered on duty however before I was advised under date Nov 14th from your office that his name did not appear in the rolls in the A & S. G. Office and was not therefore recognized as an Officer of this Department.

When I assigned Capt Engleaving to duty I did so because I knew him to be well acquainted with the Section of Country in which I wanted him to operate besides considering him from his former occupation well qualified for the duty of a purchasing officer.

In order that he may set himself right before the Department and make as it is necessary as he can for the appointment I have indicated how to go in person to Richmond and for the purpose to obtain leave of absence from the Genl Comdg the Dept.

I think him well qualified for the place and know that he can be perfectly satisfied at the point to which I had assigned him.

Yours General

Port Gibson, Miss<sup>y</sup>, August 3<sup>d</sup> 1863.

Genl. S. Cooper,

General:

I trust that a letter, enclosed herewith, from Rev<sup>d</sup> Dr. C. B. Dana to yourself, will furnish an ample apology for my addressing to you the following communication.

In the first half of last year (1862) Col. Henry Hughes of Claiborne Co., Mississippi, - prior to that time Col. of the 12th Regiment Miss<sup>y</sup> Volunteers, of the Army of Virginia, - returned home, and set about the organization of a Battalion of Cavalry, which was so far completed in the month of June 1862, as to be in service at Grand Gulf and other points on the Mississippi river, selected as points of resistance to the progress of the enemy's gunboats & transports up & down the river.

Col. Hughes selected me as the Quartermaster of this battalion, and on the 6th day of July 1862, required me to enter upon the performance of my official duties. About this time Col. Hughes was compelled by an increasing derangement of health to take his bed, from which he never after arose. His illness proved to be of a very formidable character, and he finally succumbed about the 15th of October last. His bodily sufferings soon prevented him from giving much attention to the affairs and interests of his battalion, and he was not able from that time to attend to the forwarding of my appointment to the War Department.

Early in August the battalion was ordered by Brig. Gen. Beall to Fort Hudson, - excepting only the three companies raised by Lt. Col. Wilbourne, which were continued in service in the northern part of Mississippi until the commencement of the present year. After the death of Col. Hughes, Lt. Col. Wilbourne succeeded to the chief command, but his absence from that part of the battalion with which I was doing service, prevented me from conferring with him on the subject of my appointment.

So soon as the battalion was concentrated under Col. Wilbourne, near Fort Hudson, - the Cavalry being on duty outside of the entrenchments, - I conferred with Col. Wilbourne on the aforesaid matter, and on the 8th March 1863, he addressed my appointment to the War Department, - endorsed by Col. Gantt, the chief of Cavalry, and by Maj. Gen. Gardner, - and so forwarded it as to traverse the proper channels of communication. Col. Wilbourne informed the War Department in this letter of appointment, of my continued service from the 6th of July 1862, and requested that my Commission be dated accordingly.

Previously to the 8th March 1863, I had forwarded my bond to Col. A. C. Myers, Quarter-Master General, for his acceptance. I have heard nothing from Col. Myers on the subject; and have not learned that the War Department has received or approved of my appointment by Col. Wilbourne as Quarter-Master.

I have executed another Bond, in ac--dance with the requirements of the last act of Congress regarding bonds, and it will be found enclosed herewith.

If my appointment has been confirmed, may I beg that you will cause this Bond to be handed to the proper Officer, and request him to notify me of its acceptance. If any commu-nication has been addressed to me on the subject of my appointment, it has probably been lost or miscarried; I would esteem it a favor to receive a letter on the subject.

I have made inquiry into the matter of the Liberty's mail in the winter of 1864. The usual prices on this of course for medical service. The 43rd Regt is engaged in guarding railroad bridges and it is impossible for its surgeon to attend to the sick.

The 1st Regt is assigned to a general duty at the Washington Hospital and is engaged in establishing it.

Yours truly
